

Problem statement

Lack of health-related social needs screening of candidate Medicaid beneficiaries during their visits to clinical delivery sites. The screening is filled only by the busiest clinical staff on paper forms without adequate orientation, training or follow up. The filled forms are entered manually in an excel sheet then sent on wide intervals to the central office of ImprovingHealth.